Have you ever noticed the word “listen” contains the exact same letters as “silent?”

We live in a noisy world. My prayer is that you listen to God’s voice first!

Help With a Church History

From slightly before lockdown but especially since it started I have taken an interest in the individual histories of churches and chapels, the buildings and people. This has partly spawned from a deep study made for a university project into the value of small scale microhistories but also from the fact that many of these histories are deeply interesting pieces of social history. I am currently enjoying the history of the Chadsmoor Methodist church and can recommend the history of Bilston Wesley which is easily accessible as a PDF online. I gather that aside of a few collected notes, kindly forwarded to me by Janet Fairclough there is no written history of our church. I have therefore decided that there’s no time like the present as I would like to put our history on paper. The starting point here is twofold. I’m firstly checking that nothing similar already exists and secondly asking openly whether people would be keen to offer their reminiscences.

Wishing you all the best.

World Church/JMA

It has been a topsy turvey second half of the year and I am trying to get the World Missions back on track. This is a very important part of our church life.

I would like, if possible, to have all World Church boxes and JMA boxes returned to me by Sunday, 26 July. This enables me to arrange awards, to work out my accounts, and to give Graham time to work out the end of year accounts. If there is a problem in returning to me World Church and JMA boxes, I will try to collect them. Please contact me on my home phone number or drop an email to Andrew or Susan..

Many thanks to all who have supported these causes.

Ken Bracey.
